

LIBRARY EXTENSION WORK IS PLANNED FOR VACATION DAYS

Centers to Be Opened in Suburban Sections—First at Tenleytown.

Library centers will be opened in public school houses in the suburban sections of the city during the coming summer vacation under a co-operative plan that is being worked out by Superintendent of Schools A. T. Stuart and D. R. Bowerman, librarian of the Public Library.

The first of these centers will be opened in the Tenley School, in Tenleytown, and if the center meets with the success anticipated, others of the school buildings will be utilized.

A room in the Tenley School building will be given over to use as a library. A selection of books suitable for both school children and adults will be installed by Dr. Bowerman. The building will be opened periodically to enable residents in Tenleytown, young and old, to exchange books.

Superintendent Stuart said today that the library extension plan will take the place of the summer reading course that has usually been drawn up for pupils intending to enter high schools in the fall. It is believed that the plan will result in bringing the advantages of the Public Library into more general use by the citizens.

As a guide to the pupils who are planning on high school courses the school department has prepared a bulletin advising them to give careful thought to the selection of a school. The bulletin further outlines the nature of the courses in the several high and manual training schools.

This bulletin and the library centers are expected to aid in the selection of the pupils. But the proposed centers are intended as much for adults as for the school children.

Boy Hurt by Wagon Has Chance to Recover

Although badly injured by a wagon which ran him down, eight-year-old Robert Lackie is at his home, 1208 Florida avenue northeast, with excellent chances to recover. The little fellow was playing in front of his home yesterday afternoon, and started to chase a playmate. He ran out into the street and fell directly beneath the wheels of a huckster's cart driven by James H. Porter. One of the wheels passed over the boy's body.

Little Lackie, eighteen months old, is about the youngest patient currently in the hospital. He is injured on his right side, but his hurts are not regarded as serious. He lives with his parents at 626 Virginia avenue southeast. She is just beginning to toddle, and her efforts at walking yesterday evening brought her to the steps of the front steps, from where she tumbled down the whole flight.

Coroner to Investigate Death of Mrs. M. Wells

An inquest will be held at the District Morgue at 4 o'clock this afternoon to fix the cause for the death of Mrs. Mamie Wells, Clinton Wells, her husband, is held by the police. The inquest was ordered because of a statement made by the woman before she died, in which, according to the police, she said her husband had struck her. An autopsy revealed that she died as the result of a blow, but of blood poisoning incident to an operation.

Wells is an ironworker and lives at 228 I street. He admits he had quarreled on occasion with his wife, but denies ever having struck her.

SCHOOL THESPIANS PLEASED WITH PLAY AND WILL REPEAT

McKinley Manual Training Students Score With "The Deacon's Second Wife."

The closing performance of the play, "The Deacon's Second Wife," to be given tonight by the pupils of the McKinley Manual Training School, it is expected will again tax the capacity of the assembly hall at the school, as did the initial presentation last night.

The week's delay in the giving of the play gave time for two young women who took the places of the partisans of Lieutenant Colonel Lohr to perfect themselves in their parts. The members of the cast acquired themselves well. The recent trouble between Lieutenant Colonel Lohr and Principal Myers did not mar the success of the play.

The young persons in the parts were Miss Judd, Miss Wright, Miss Spelden, Miss Brade, Miss Jacobs, Miss Meyer, Mr. Crow, Mr. Selbold, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Dann, Mr. White, and Mr. Gilbert. The company was trained by the faculty dramatic committee, composed of Miss Ellis, Miss Muckenhoupt, Miss Dalton, Mr. Lamb, Mr. Pigott, and Mr. Claff.

TRADE BOARDS TO DECIDE ON MERGER ISSUE NEXT WEEK

Both Bodies to Hold Special Meetings—Small Objects To Reporters.

The whole membership of the Board of Trade will have an opportunity on Thursday evening, May 25, to express its opinion of the proposed merger with the Chamber of Commerce, a special meeting for that purpose having been called. The membership of the Chamber of Commerce will meet for the same purpose next Tuesday night.

Upon the objection to the presence of reporters made by John Henry Small, soon after the meeting yesterday afternoon had been called to order by Gen. George H. Harries, president of the board, and a ruling by the chair that the proceedings would not be public unless by unanimous consent, the press representatives were asked to leave the room.
